Artist Anthony Lee to Hold Studio Visit

Local artist Anthony Lee will be opening up his studio for public viewing on April 16th at 6 PM. Lee will be discussing two of the projects that he has worked on for the UrbanArt Commission (UAC): Modern Hieroglyphs, which was a temporary project created for the UAC's 10th Anniversary celebration; and his Pierotti Park installation, which is a permanent art piece going into the public park as part of the City of Memphis' Percent-for-Art program. Lee will be describing these projects and the process of fabricating and installing these works in coordination with the UrbanArt Commission. The studio is located at 639 Marshall Avenue (Marshall Arts) and all are welcome.

The UAC was established in 1997 through the collaborative efforts of the Memphis Arts Council and the Shelby County Government. The mission of the UrbanArt Commission is to create a dynamic, vibrant, nurturing community through art and design. The UAC is funded in part by the City of Memphis, Greater Memphis Arts Council, Tennessee Arts Commission and the Hyde Foundation.
